SANTOSH RAJ ESTATE

It is one of the most ancient estates in Eastern Bengal. It was established before the reign of the Mogul Emperor Shah Jahan in the 17th Century. The Hon'ble Raja's estates are in the districts of Mymensingh and Pabna. It is at present divided into five principal divisions, within the respective jurisdiction of Santosh, Pagaldighee, Messra Chuniapatel and Kashtala Raj Cutcharies, with the Head Office in Calcutta. There are primary schools and dispensaries for the benefit of the tenants of each of these divisions. A very large percentage of the tenants are Mohammedans. Major portion of the estate is under cultivation, Jute being the principal crop. There are fisheries, forests with valuable timbers, markets and trade centres which also bring revenue to the estate
